

THE COMPETITIVE EDGE FOR EEHA ELECTRICAL WORKERS

ELECTRICAL WORKERS OPERATING IN HAZARDOUS AREAS
ARE SEEKING OUT COURSES TO HELP GIVE THEM A COMPETITIVE
EDGE IN SECURING POSITIONS WITH GLOBAL ENERGY, MINING AND MANUFACTURING COMPANIES.

Electrical workers are turning to Competency Training for internationally recognized training to ensure their global skills sets can improve their chances of local and global employability.

Competency Training is a Recognised Training Provider (RTP) under the IECEx Certification of Personal Competence (CoPC) scheme and offers advanced Hazardous Area (HA) courses delivering professional, skilled and compliant graduates, prepared to take the next step towards securing internationally recognized IECEx CoPC.

IECEx certification helps students become more qualified in their field at a time of increased competition in a tight labour market.

Attaining IECEx certification as a CoPC worker is a three step process. Competency Training is the only Australian company in the southern hemisphere offering the prior learning for graduates to then apply for this highly sought after international certification.

THREE STEPS TO GIVE YOU THE COMPETITIVE EDGE

WHAT WILL IECEx CERTIFICATION DO FOR ME?

WHO IS THIS EEHA (EX) TRAINING FOR?

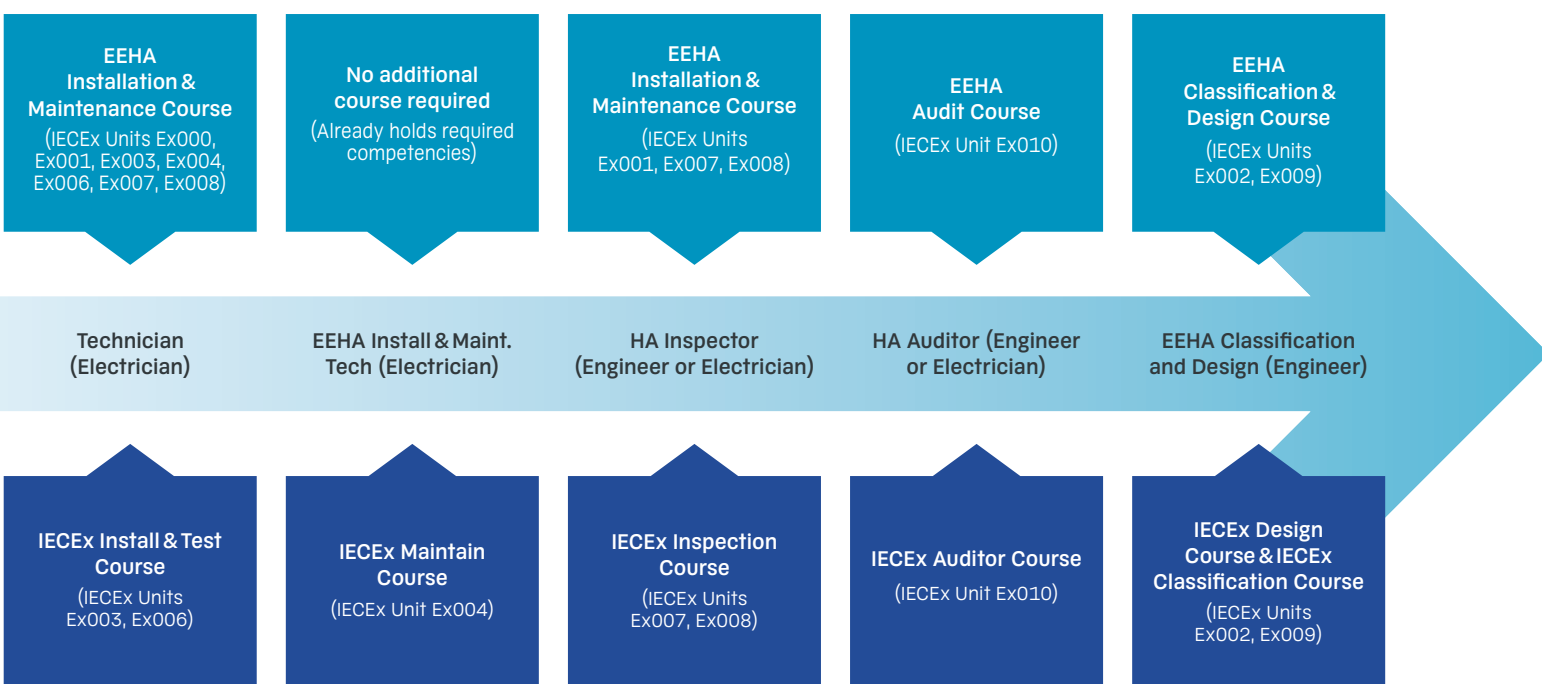

This training is suitable for installers, maintainers, inspectors, auditors, and overhaul and repair technicians working with electrical equipment in locations that may contain potentially explosive atmospheres.

WHAT CAN STUDENTS EXPECT FROM COMPETENCY TRAINING'S EEHA (EX) COURSES?

- A tailored approach for HA (Ex) training by a recognized IECEx training provider.
- Portfolio of evidence following completion of the pre-learning course – required for IECEx CoPC certification.
- Qualified educators who meet Competency Training's standards, and are up-to-date with the latest changes to regulations and legislation.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF IECEx CERTIFICATION OVER OTHER INTERNATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS?

- Instant verification, with international companies able to access all issued IECEx Certificates instantly on www.iecex.com.
- Cost effective training solutions delivered on time and to budget.
- Professionally and seamlessly delivered world-class education to meet changing challenges in industry, and to minimize training downtime.

IECEX CERTIFICATION IS RECOGNISED AROUND THE WORLD.

It's offered by the International Electrotechnical Commission to benchmark standards in operating and maintaining equipment in explosive (Ex) atmospheres.

IECEX recognizes the skills, knowledge and competence of persons working in Ex areas, providing assurance of independent verification of skills held by electrical workers.

Some of the industries covered by the IECEX standard include:

- oil and gas refineries
- off-shore platform rigs and processing plants
- petrol/gas stations, chemical processing plants
- coal mining
- manufacturing
- printing industries, paper and textiles
- construction and infrastructure
